PART 1: IDENTIFICATION OF THE INVESTOR¹

1741 Alternative Investments SICAV

AIF under Liechtenstein law

The investment company 1741 Alternative Investments SICAV (including all its sub-funds) is an AIF established in accordance with the provisions of the AIFMA/AIFMO and managed by 1741 Fund Management AG. The units of the investment company 1741 Alternative Investments SICAV are intended solely for professional investors within the meaning of the MiFID Directive 2014/65/EU.

Units of the individual sub-funds are issued and redeemed on the basis each sub-fund's constituent documents (Prospectus, By-laws, etc.).

Particulars of the professional investor:

Surname / Company name	First name		Title
House number, street	Post code	Place	Country
Telephone number	E-mail address

The investor hereby confirms that, at the time this document is signed, both he and any person(s) for whose account he is acting fulfil the requirements specified in the constituent documents or, as applicable, are professionals within the meaning of Directive 2014/65/EU (MiFID):

The following applies to investors who are professionals within the meaning of Directive 2014/65/EU (MiFID):

A professional client is a client who possesses the experience, knowledge and expertise to make its own investment decisions and properly assess the risks that it incurs.

With regard to all securities services and financial instruments the following clients should be considered as professionals within the meaning of the Directive:

1. Entities which are required to be authorised or regulated to operate in the financial markets. The list below should be understood as including all authorised entities carrying out the characteristic activities of the entities mentioned:
 - entities authorised by a Member State under a directive,
 - entities authorised or regulated by a Member State without reference to a directive,
 - entities authorised or regulated by a non-Member State:
 - a) credit institutions;
 - b) investment firms;
 - c) other authorised or regulated financial institutions;
 - d) insurance companies;
 - e) collective investment undertakings and their management companies;
 - f) pension funds and their management companies;
 - g) commodity and commodity derivative dealers;
 - h) local investors;
 - i) other institutional investors.
2. Large undertakings meeting two of the following size requirements on a company basis:
 - balance sheet total: EUR 20,000,000;
 - net turnover: EUR 40,000,000;
 - own funds: EUR 2,000,000.

¹ Part 1 is retained by the bank which receives the investor's subscription.

3. National and regional governments, public bodies that manage public debt, central banks, international and supra-national institutions such as the World Bank, the IMF, the ECB, the EIB and other similar international organisations.
4. Other institutional investors whose main activity is to invest in financial instruments, including entities dedicated to the securitisation of assets or other financing transactions. The entities mentioned above are considered to be professionals. They must however be allowed to request non-professional treatment and investment firms may agree to provide a higher level of protection. Where the client of an investment firm is an undertaking referred to above, the investment firm must inform it prior to any provision of services that, on the basis of the information available to the firm, the client is deemed to be a professional client, and will be treated as such unless the firm and the client agree otherwise. The firm must also inform the client that he can request a variation of the terms of the agreement in order to secure a higher degree of protection. It is the responsibility of the client considered to be a professional client to ask for a higher level of protection when it deems it is unable to properly assess or manage the risks involved. This higher level of protection will be provided when a client who is considered to be a professional enters into a written agreement with the investment firm to the effect that it shall not be treated as a professional for the purposes of the applicable conduct of business regime. Such agreement should specify whether this applies to one or more particular services or transactions, or to one or more types of product or transaction.
5. Clients who may be treated as professionals on request pursuant to Directive 2014/65/EU (MiFID).

Declaration by the investor

I/We hereby declare that:

- I/we have duly noted the content of the constituent documents, with which I am/we are in agreement;
- I/we duly note that applications for units may be deferred or rejected;
- I/we have duly noted the unit issue and redemption conditions stipulated in the constituent documents;
- I/we have duly noted the restrictions on the sale of units stipulated in the constituent documents, and in particular those regarding the sale of units in the United States or to US nationals or persons resident in the United States, and I/we hereby confirm that no such conditions apply;
- I/we accept the risks described in the constituent documents;
- in the event that I/we have previously opened a new custody account, I/we shall not acquire the units until such account has been set up validly in accordance with statutory due diligence provisions.
